3rd November 2009

Dear Members of PMRG,

We have had a terrific year, immensely enriched by the UWA Centre for Medieval and Early Modern Studies whose activities and visiting lecturers have been generously shared with PMRG.

Now, in the run-up to Christmas, we have one final social event, the Christmas party. We are reverting to the more traditional indoor party, with dancing led by Jane Emberson, singing by Sneaks Noise, and catering by the UWA Guild. We hope to attract a good crowd for this event, so please come along with your friends and family.

Date: Friday 4th December, 6.30 p.m. for 7 p.m. start
Venue: Hackett Hall
Price: Meal $30
Drinks: Pay as you go

Our last social event, the Quiz Night in August, was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and we look forward to the party as a great way to catch up and celebrate with friends.

The committee joins me in wishing you all the best. We hope to see you at the party, and to catch up with you again when our 2010 programme starts next March.
